

Yeah, Right

Track Dogs, Music/Lyrics by: Brown, Jones, Mooney and Wall

Intro

C D F C

Verse 1

C D
 Look at Paco his workload's dire
 F C
 he keeps on saying he's gonna retire
 C D
 but all his life he's worked so hard
 F C
 back in the kitchen, out in the yard
 C D
 Breaking stone walls, building a barn
 F C
 Brewing his beer, and selling his cheer
 C D
 Yeah, he says he's gonna retire
 F
 I'll believe it when I see it.

Chorus

C D F C
 Mmm, yeah, right. I'll believe it when I see it
 C D F C
 I call Bullshit. I'll believe it when I see it.

Verse 2

Jealous Joe, this guy I know
 Head over heels for Fast-buck Flo
 Years would come and years would go
 Get him hot and leave him cold
 Now he reckons he's had enough
 I'm here today to call his bluff
 Sure he says he's had enough
 I'll believe it when I see it

 Verse 3

There's a guy I know too well
Says his traveling life is hell
Out on the road dozens of shows
Where was the last town? Nobody knows
Now he says he just might quit
Maybe slow down after one more stint
Yeah, like he's really gonna quit it.
I'll believe it when I see it.

 Verse 4

If you know someone goes on and on Bout how their gonna right that wrong
Just remember this little song
Get all your friends to sing along

Note: Standard GCEA Soprano Ukulele Tuning. | Powered by UkeGeeks' Scriptasaurus • ukegeeks.com