

Danny Boy

Traditional tune "Londonderry Air"

Lyrics by Frederick Edward Weatherly 1910

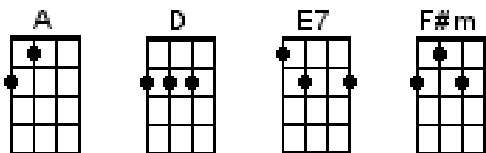

INTRO: / 1 2 / 1 2 / [A] / [A]

Oh Danny [A] boy, the pipes, the pipes are [D] calling [D]
From glen to [A] glen, and down the mountain [E7] side [E7]
The summer's [A] gone, and all the roses [D] falling [D]
It's you, it's [A] you must [E7] go and I must [A] bide [A]

But come ye [A] back when [D] summer's in the [A] meadow [A]
Or when the [F#m] valley's [D] hushed and white with [E7] snow [E7]
'Tis I'll be [A] here in [D] sunshine or in [A] shadow [F#m]
Oh Danny [A] boy, oh Danny [D] boy, I [E7] love you [A] so [A]

And come ye [A] back, when all the flowers are [D] dying [D]
When I am [A] dead, as dead I well may [E7] be [E7]
Ye'll come and [A] find the place where I am [D] lying [D]
And kneel and [A] say an [E7] "Ave" there for [A] me [A]

And I shall [A] hear, tho' [D] soft you tread a-[A]bove me [A]
And all my [F#m] grave, will [D] warmer sweeter [E7] be [E7]
For you will [A] bend and [D] tell me that you [A] love me [F#m]
And I shall [A] sleep in peace un-[D]til ye [E7] come to [A] me [F#m]↓
And I shall [A]↓ sleep in peace un-[D]↓til ye [E7]↓ come to [A]↓ me [A]↓
