

Seven Drunken Nights (6/8) - The Dubliners (we'll stick with five nights!)

Chorus suggest:-

Oh as [A] I went home on a [A] Monday night, as [A] drunk as drunk [A] be
I [D] saw a horse out-[D] side my door, where [D] my ould horse should [D] be
Well I [A] called me wife and [A] said to her, will you [D] kindly tell to [D] me,
Who [A] owns that horse out-[A] side the door where [D] my ould horse should [A] be,
Ah you're [A] drunk, your drunk you [A] silly old fool, [A] still you cannot [A] see,
[A] That's a love-e-ly [A] sow, that me [E7] mother sent to [A] me,
Well its [A] many a day I [A] travelled, a [A] hundred miles or [A] more,
But a [A] saddle on a [A] sow sure I [E7] never saw be-[A] fore.

And as [A] I went home on [A] Tuesday night as [A] drunk as drunk could [A] be,
I [D] saw a coat be-[D] hind the door where [D] my old coat should [D] be,
Well I [A] called me wife and [A] said to her, will you [D] kindly tell to [D] me,
Who [A] owns that coat be-[A] hind the door where [D] my old coat should [A] be,
Ah you're [A] drunk, your drunk you [A] silly old fool, [A] still you cannot [A] see,
[A] That's a love-ly [A] blanket, that me [E7] mother sent to [A] me,
Well its [A] many a day I [A] travelled, a [A] hundred miles or [A] more,
But a [A] buttons on a [A] blanket sure I [E7] never saw be-[A] fore.

And as [A] I came home on a [A] Wednesday night as [A] drunk as drunk could [A] be,
I [D] saw a pipe up-[D] on the chair, where [D] my old pipe should [D] be,
Well I [A] called me wife and [A] said to her, will you [D] kindly tell to [D] me,
Who [A] owns that pipe up-[A] on the chair where [D] my old pipe should [A] be,
Ah you're [A] drunk, your drunk you [A] silly old fool, [A] still you cannot [A] see,
[A] That's a love-ly [A] tin whistle that me [E7] mother sent to [A] me,
Well its [A] many a day I [A] travelled, a [A] hundred miles or [A] more,
But to-[A] bacco in a [A] tin whistle sure I [E7] never seen be-[A] fore.

And as [A] I went home on a [A] Thursday night as [A] drunk as drunk could [A] be,
I [D] saw two boots be-[D] neath the bed where [D] my old boots should [D] be,
Well I [A] called me wife and [A] said to her, will you [D] kindly tell to [D] me,
Who [A] owns them boots be-[A] neath the bed where [D] my old boots should [A] be,
Ah you're [A] drunk, your drunk you [A] silly old fool, [A] still you cannot [A] see,
[A] There two love'ly [A] geranium pots me [E7] mother sent to [A] me,
Well its [A] many a day I [A] travelled, a [A] hundred miles or [A] more,
But [A] laces in ger-[A] anium pots, I [E7] never saw be-[A] fore.

And as [A] I went home on a [A] Friday night as [A] drunk as drunk could [A] be,
I [D] saw a head u-[D] pon the bed where my [D] old head should [D] be,
Well I [A] called me wife and [A] said to her, will you [D] kindly tell to [D] me,
Who [A] owns that head up-[A] on the bed where [D] my old head should [A] be,
Ah you're [A] drunk, your drunk you [A] silly old fool, [A] still you cannot [A] see,
[A] That's a baby [A] boy that me [E7] mother sent to [A] me,
Well its [A] many a day I [A] travelled, a [A] hundred miles or [A] more,
But a [A] baby with his [A] whiskers on sure I [E7] never seen be-[A] fore.
La la [A] la la la al la la laa la la [E7] la la laa la [A] laaa!
